About NAHMA

The National Affordable Housing Management Association (NAHMA) is proud to kick off the annual art/calendar contest. We anticipate that more than 5,000 children, elderly and residents with special needs nationwide will be participating in the calendar art contest this year.

We have added a subtheme to the drug-free message to reinforce a more positive use of time and to encourage a broader range of submissions. The underlying message for the contest will continue to have a drug-free theme but we also wanted to open the door for more avenues of expression. The subtheme for the 2026 contest is: Shaping our future: Building Stronger Communities Together.

Below are contest rules and tips for various affordable housing management associations, property management companies and on-site property managers on how to hold an art contest. If you require additional information on NAHMA's national finalists contest, please contact Brenda Moser at the NAHMA office at 703-683-8630, ext. 114.

Please follow the rules outlined below to ensure that the poster qualifies for both MAHMA and NAHMA judging.

Eligibility

CHILDREN

Children who live in a family community of a NAHMA and/or a local MAHMA member company.

SENIORS

Residents who are 55 years or older who live in a community of a NAHMA and/or a local MAHMA member company.

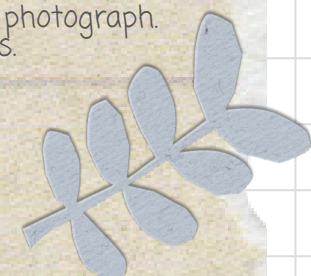

RESIDENTS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

Residents who live in a permanent supportive housing community or Section 811 community of a NAHMA and/or a local MAHMA member company.

How the Contest Works

For each grade category (for children) and up to three entries in the elderly and special needs levels, local MAHMA's select three winning posters, photographs*, websites*, computer art* or other media*, such as tile, macramé, needlework etc., which must be submitted as a photograph. *See detailed descriptions for format and size in another section of the contest rules.

The five grade categories for children are listed below.

- Kindergarten-first grade
 - Second-third grade
 - Fourth-sixth grade
 - Seventh-ninth grade
 - 10th-12th grade

All MAHMA winning submissions are forwarded to NAHMA where a distinguished panel of judges will select the 13 winning entries that will appear inside the pages of the 2026 calendar, including submissions from children, elderly and residents with special needs. Additionally, one special entry will be selected as the grand prizewinner, which will appear on the cover. Only children are eligible to become the grand prizewinners.

All art submitted to NAHMA becomes the property of NAHMA and NAHMA has the right to use the art for publicity, publications and advertisements.

Artwork Specifications

- Posters must be done on poster board (or heavy art paper) measuring 22 inches x 28 inches.
- Any media may be used for the posters, including paints, crayons, color pencils, chalk and collage, but contestants are advised to ensure that the media selected results in a flat surface, and can be adequately protected against damage.
- The poster must be marked clearly with the official entry form attached. • Photography can be in color or black and white and must measure at least 8 inches x 10 inches but not larger than 22 inches x 28 inches.
- Website design: webpages must be printed in color and measure 8.5 inches x 11 inches, and then mounted to poster board measuring 22 inches x 28 inches.

Deadline

The deadline for entries to be submitted to MAHMA is May 12, 2026

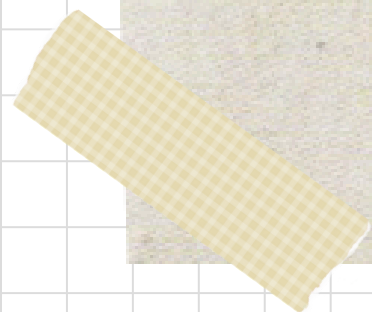

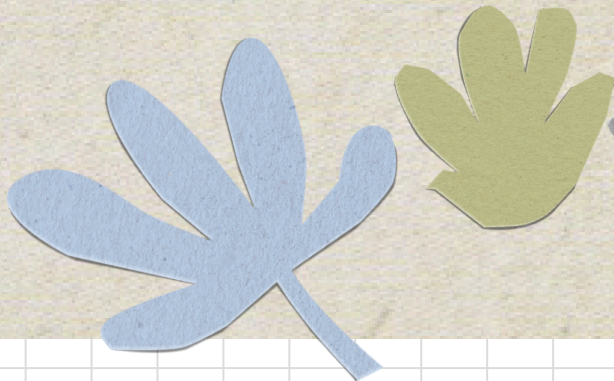

How the Art is Judged

Entries are judged on the artist's ability to create a submission with the 'Shaping our Future: Building Stronger Communities Together' contest subtheme. The artwork must be original and cannot be a replica or reproduction of someone else's creation. Artwork that is not original will be disqualified. Specifically judges consider:

- Interpretation of 'Shaping our Future: Building Stronger Communities Together' subtheme.
- Originality of the submission.
- Quality: Is the art submission appealing to the eye?
- Overall artistic ability: Does the art submission show some degree of creativity and skill for its age group? Will the submission be able to be reproduced with reasonable quality and clarity?

Honorable Mentions

Children, seniors, and residents with special needs in our communities from across the nation who participate in the annual art contests held by regional and state MAHMAs are eligible to be selected as regional MAHMA art contest Honorable Mentions and will have their artwork featured nationally in a special section of the NAHMA 2026 Drug-Free Kids Calendar. These participants are in addition to those that will be selected as national winners.

Prizes

The winners of each local category receive cash prizes from MAHMA. All winners of the national contest receive educational. Scholarships in the form of a NAHMA Educational Foundation check. All national winners will appear in the 2026 calendar with a short artist bio and photo.

The national contest's grand prizewinner, whose art will appear on the cover of the calendar, receives an educational scholarship and a trip to Washington, D.C., where he or she will be honored at the NAHMA Fall Meeting in late October 2026.

NAHMA Prizes

- • Grand Prizewinner: $2,500 check and trip to Washington, D.C.
